Powerful Angels
for Times of Change

If you are interested in archangels, angels and ascended masters, you will want to learn about this highest category of luminous beings. The Elohim, angels of transformation, are of great significance for the year of 2012. They are called “the Bright Ones“: extremely powerful beings with high vibrations, serving the humans in times of change. Their occasionally overwhelming impact unfolds, when you are open and prepared to experience this energy physically, emotionally and mentally. Limiting thoughts, blocks and karmic acting dispel under their influence, opening up spaces of healing.

In line with the archangels, the Elohim embody divine principles, whereas they came into existence immediately from the divine ray, thus stayed directly connected with the principle of Creation. As a result, they possess tremendous powers of transformation.

Why do the Elohim show up just now? What are their tasks? How do they work and what can they do for us? Bestselling author Petra Schneider shows, how you can connect with this major power, unfold your true being, strengthen the link with your blueprint for life and find peace within, in order to make optimal use of these times of change. This first comprehensive work about the Elohim covers the Elohim color rays, as well as the different Elohim groups in their meaning, and provides information about how to communicate with them on a daily basis.

Best-selling author Petra Schneider masterfully conveys the interplay of celestial orders and helping beings from the spiritual world. She’s an expert for meditation, subtle beings and angels. Her seminars and workshops are always fully booked. www.elohimeinweihung.de
